This event replaces the Epiphany Service which cannot be held in the cathedral next year due to building works. The number of singers from RSCM will be limited due to restrictions on space, so please apply in good time!

The Music – to be advised

All music should be downloaded beforehand and choir trainers are asked to ensure that all singers come to the festival knowing their notes thoroughly.

Hymns will be provided on the day

NB: Robed and unrobed choirs are equally welcome.

Cost

£5 per person to include tea & cake (gluten-free available)

Parking

Difficult and expensive in the centre of Oxford – singers are advised to use the Park & Ride buses from various points around the town or come by public transport.

PLEASE

publicise the Festival in your churches and parishes, and invite families & friends to attend the Service
