

Hymns and Voluntaries

A training day in Windsor for those playing in church

Saturday 19th October 2019, 10.45am–4.30pm

Holy Trinity Parish & Garrison Church, Trinity Place, Windsor, SL4 3AT

led by John Halsey, RCO Regional Consultant for the Berkshire Area

A day of practical advice with a small group (maximum 6 players) focused on helping you improve your hymn and voluntary playing. Suitable for all ages and levels of experience up to CRCO diploma, we especially encourage those new to playing in church or those planning to do so to attend, together with those with some experience.

Schedule

10.45am	Entry by south side door, Coffee, Welcome
11.15am	Plenary and 1 st teaching session—Hymns
12.45pm	Lunch—bring packed lunch or visit nearby coffee shop
1.30pm	Plenary and 2 nd teaching session—Hymns
3.00pm	Plenary and 3 rd teaching session—Voluntaries
4.30pm	Close

Fee. £50 (£40 RCO Members) payable on registration. To book online visit www.rco.org.uk/events.php. To book by phone please call RCO Bookings & Accounts on 020 3865 6998.

Transport. There is no parking at the church. Use Windsor town centre car parks or public transport. Holy Trinity Church is easily reached on foot from Windsor & Eton Riverside or Windsor & Eton Central stations.

Preparation. Participants should prepare two contrasting hymns, bringing six music copies of each, plus one voluntary with two spare copies of the music. You can play using the pedals or not at your choice.

Teaching. Teaching format will be a mix of plenary discussion, demonstration and individual teaching. All the attendees will be participants, with no observers. Topics for the Hymns sessions will include play-overs, tempi, registration and response to the text. Topics for the Voluntaries session will include choice of music, registration and performance style.

Promoted by the Royal College of Organists
RCO Bookings & Accounts, P.O. Box 7328, New Milton, BH25 9DU.
Tel 020 3865 6998; email bookings@rco.org.uk
Registered charity number 312847
VAT registration 676 3826 93