

Young Voices Festival

24th September 2017 at St Andrew's Church, Sonning

Young choristers, both boys and girls aged 7 to 16, are invited to join in an afternoon of singing using the new RSCM Young Voices Festival book Songs of Praise the Angels Sang. Church choirs, school choirs or individuals are all welcome, whether affiliated to the RSCM or not, but please be aware that this year the RSCM is offering discounted membership for those who attend events and would like to join. Families and supporters are welcome to join us for the service at the end of the afternoon. For details of the music contact the director at music@sonningparish.org.uk

The Director for this event is Christopher Goodwin, who is the Director of Music at St Andrew's Church and from September he will also be Director of Chapel Music at Papplewick School, Ascot

Timetable

3pm Start in the Church

4.30 Break in The Ark

5.30 Service

6.30 End

There is no charge for attending this event, but it is essential that places are booked in advance so that we know how many choristers will be attending and we can ensure that each has a completed Parental Consent Form. Choir Directors or other adults bringing groups of children will be responsible for their supervision on the day. Mary Delaney will be the Safeguarding Officer for this event and will be available to assist if necessary.

In the break, squash and biscuits will be provided, but you may bring your own refreshments if you wish.

Choir robes will not be needed, as unrobed choirs, particularly School choirs, will be welcome as well as Church choirs.

St Andrew's Church, Sonning-on-Thames RG4 6UR is in the centre of the village, not far from the river Thames. Car parking is available in nearby roads, particularly in Sonning Lane just above the Church on the South side, but there is no public transport to Sonning on a Sunday. If further directions or a map are needed, please ask when booking.
