

ST BARNABAS CHURCH, EMMER GREEN, READING

is seeking a new

Organist/Musical Director

St Barnabas is a broad-based CofE parish church on the northern edge of Reading.
(See www.saintbarnabas.org.uk for more information)

Our organ has recently been re-commissioned after being completely refurbished, converted to electronic action and upgraded to a 2-manual instrument. There is a small, committed choir whose numbers are augmented for special services. We are active in introducing forms of worship and music likely to be attractive to families and children.

Music is primarily centred on the 9.30 parish communion service, with the usual festival services in addition. Choir practices are normally weekly (Tuesday evening).

Opportunities would be offered to play at weddings and funerals.

We have a member willing to act as Assistant, so the position need not be full time.
Remuneration based on RSCM guidelines
